Re: Withdrawal from Representation for Issued Patents

Dear Helene,

As we discussed in our telephone conversation on April 23rd, Carr & Ferrell will submit to the U.S. Patent & Trademark Office Petitions to withdraw from representation for each of Apple's issued patents for which we currently have a Power of Attorney.

We will submit the withdrawal requests today and we expect that, for most cases, the withdrawals will become effective in about 60 days, which will be August 14, 2002. That will be the nominal date for transfer of responsibility. Until that time Carr & Ferrell will continue to handle maintenance fee payments for Apple. We agree that in the absence of instructions to the contrary, we will pay maintenance fees for all patents. For any patents having maintenance fees due on or after the nominal transfer date, we will contact you (or another attorney at Apple) for confirmation of who is to handle the payment.

Please do not hesitate to call me if you have any questions.

Thank you.

Yours truly,

Eppa Hite
